Are We Thankful Americans?

Do we celebrate Thanksgiving with the same attitude as the Pilgrims did? Do we really stop to thank God for his many blessings throughout the year?

Turkey and Recess Top Thoughts

NO! most of us don't! All we think about is getting out of school and having a big elaborate Thanksgiving dinner.

Thanksgiving is a time when we should stop and count our numerous blessings. Most of us never thank God for our blessings unless they outnumber our troubles, I'm afraid. Some even take His blessings for granted.

Let's make an exception this year; let's ask God's blessing on our Thanksgiving dinner; then after dinner let's take time out and actually count some of His blessings in our lives.

If we'd all do this, this would truly be a Thanksgiving Day.

ARS NOTE-ICA<sup>(16)</sup>

Sometimes it is very difficult to concentrate upon 'taking notes' (1) in class, especially when one may be thinking about far more important things, such as what to wear Saturday night or with whom one is going out. (2) Or, if the ending of the previous sentence is offensive (3) because of its ending with a preposition, with whom one is out going.

(4) More often than not in such cases, notes are apt to resemble the track marks (5) of the Dadeous monster (6).

A Great Plan

However, I have hit upon a plan to make note-taking fun, (7) and aid immeasurably in retaining the information you are required to remember. (8) For instance, perhaps you need to remember that Adams (9) followed Washington as President of the United States.

This is the way you do it:

Washington evidently suggests washing. (10) Washing evidently suggests laundry. Laundry evidently suggests the Chinese. The Chinese evidently suggests missionaries. Missionaries evidently suggest the Bible. The Bible begins with Adam.

This solution (13) makes for class notes which are never deadily dull, and are very readable.

Take Your Time, Tillie

Remember never to hurry your writing; for one good little old note can be worth a hundred mediocre ones, (14) and you may be so thrilled to have written a really good one. It could really make your whole day. (15) Really.

EDITOR:

- (1) See last week's Missourian for definition. Does not refer to taking notes from that handsome BMOC asking for a date.
- (2) This is not a preposition but only an aspect of the verb.
- (3) Our football team has a good one.
- (4) Pay attention; it is NOT a preposition. Metastasis will lead one astray.
- (5) Maieutic professors do not permit this sort of thing.
- (6) The sheriff of Dade county as played by Boris Karloff. It cannot be classified as either a trogon or an autochton.
- (7) Enclose a note to the editor enclosing a one-dollar bill.
- (8) cf note (5); it was supposed to go here.
- (9) No, No! Not Adam Smith; Henry Adams of course.
- (10) cf Daniel Webster's dictionary. We don't get paid for these plugs. (11)
- (11) Author: You shouldn't; Noah wrote the dictionary. (12)
- (12) That shows how you take notes; Noah built the ark.
- (13) Add 2% boric acid to Raymond's Emulsion for best results.
- (14) Author: If it's from that BMOC. Editor: Don't forget $1 bill.
- (15) Different—to say the least . . .
- (16) The art of taking notes. All right so it's not good French. After all who said it was French.

They're Talking About . . .

THEY'RE TALKING ABOUT . . . the Bearcat who stopped his car in the middle of Interstate Hi-way 29, took out his shotgun, and went 'hunting'—and we thought—the hi-way was still closed!!! . . . the Malvernian Bomber . . . the good peanut crop this year . . .

THEY'RE TALKING ABOUT . . . the professor who has stapled last week's MISSOURIAN cartoon on his door . . . surprise birthday parties for several girls in Freshman Hall . . . popcorn parties . . . ice tub blues (what happened to the hot water in the dorms last week???) . . .

THEY'RE TALKING ABOUT . . . the lost bag of dirty clothes—lost??? . . . the "AMERICAN BEAUTY PARADE" at the surprise fire drill . . . the records that our tankers smashed at Emporia State—CONGRATULATIONS, fellows!!!

Now short skirts are fine for girls with pretty legs, but I am one of those many cursed with Knobby Knees.

Consequently, I keep them well hidden, and my roommate (who is really a loveable girl) therefore thinks I am terribly outdated.

Cheer up, ye knobby-kneed

I wish to offer a word of consolation for these girls who by ill fortune are also forced to be outdated. Let me put it this way:

1. If you are short, you may very well be taken for a small girl. This is not the most horrible fate that can befall you, but it is embarrassing to be offered lollipops by well-meaning elders.
2. Just think of all the skirts that don't have to be re-hemmed and then let down again when styles change. (And they will; they always do).
3. And last, but not least, (to borrow a tried and true phrase) IT IS GETTING COLD OUTSIDE. And you will have NICE, WARM KNEES when that COLD WIND BLOWS and short-skirt gals are freezing. So don't let the short skirt craze get you down—it's an ill wind that blows nobody good.

Tankers Top Past Records At Emporia St.

A determined and inspired Emporia State swim team came from behind in the last minutes of the meet Friday to take it away from the Bearcat swimmers to the tune of 49-47 at Emporia.

The Bearcat team, however, smashed its last year's varsity record by winning 10 out of 11 events.

Though both teams were evenly matched, Coach Guy Bensusan said the Bearcats were lacking experience and Emporia has a long tradition in swimming, plus the fact they were in their own pool.

"Coach Bill Burgess' Hornets were expert at taking advantage of their opportunities," Bensusan said. A re-match will be held here January 7.

Bob McCoy, junior from Maryville, was high point man for the Bearcats with 11. His outstanding performance came in the butterfly and breaststroke.

Freshman Ed Atkins, Chillicothe, was second for the local team with 10 points by virtue of his excellent showing in the grueling quarter-mile.

Although the Bearcats started out with a lead, it was soon whittled in the third and fourth events. Then the Maryville team forged ahead again, only losing in the last few minutes.

'60 Cage Squad Returning Three

This year's basketball squad will have to cope with building practically a new team.

Only three of last year's team have returned; they are Jerry Meznarich, 6'5" forward from LaSalle, Ill.; Rodney Esch, 6'4" center from Indianola, Nebr.; and Guard Bob Ogden from Maryville.

Jerry and Rod, junior and senior respectively, are both lettermen; and Bob, who is a junior, has a conditional letter.

The following prospects are transfer students: Guards—J. D. Miller, 6'1"; Paul Lizzo, 6'3"; and Dick Hicks, 6'2".

Forwards—Don Drake, 6'4"; Jack Tipton, 6'5"; and Jon Baldwin, 6'4".

Centers — DeWayne Bond, 6'8"; and Darwin Twedt, 6'5".

Freshmen — Bill Barbuto, 6'1"; Bob Beck, 6'3"; Jim Sanders, 6'3"; Ken Sheradon, 6'3"; Randy Wolcott, 6'2"; and Mike Woods, 6'2".

Other freshmen may be elevated to varsity at a later date.

The Bearcats will face two new opponents this season: William Jewell of Liberty, Missouri; and Midland from Fremont, Nebraska.

Kirkville, Cape Girardeau, and Springfield are the three toughest teams that Maryville will face in conference play.

Rounds Announces The Band Plays On

The college band began rehearsals for concert work Monday, according to Mr. Ward Rounds, director.

Plans call for a concert in January, a three day tour in the spring, and a spring concert.

Mr. Rounds said that the band needs clarinet and trombone players, but the band can also use players of other instruments. His office is room 415, Ad.
